THE PROPERTY

Description

The house throughout has been refurbished to a very high standard with all plumbing, electrics and windows replaced and upgraded.

On the ground floor front door opens into a fantastic open plan living space, which, because of the east/west orientation, is extremely light all day, incorporates a lounge area with gas fired cast iron stove, a fully fitted kitchen which has been modernised to a very high standard and includes appliances. Also on the ground floor is a utility area with stable door to the rear garden and a beautiful shower room with marbled tiles.

On the first floor is the master double with inbuilt wardrobes, second bedroom, currently used as a home office and another stunning bathroom with rainfall shower over the bath.

There is also a partly boarded loft for storage.

Outside to the front is a private lawned garden and to the rear a private patio area which enjoys a southerly aspect and is a real sun trap. There is also an parking space allocated to the house.

Location

Lawnsmead is located in the much sought after village of Wonersh and is within walking distance of all the amenities the village including village shop, post office and public house. There are miles of country walks on the doorstep and the larger towns of Guildford and Godalming, both close by, offer excellent transport links into London as well as further shopping, entertainment and dining options.
