THE PROPERTY

Description

Formerly the Stephen Langton Inn, named after the 12th century Archbishop of Canterbury who played a pivotal role in the signing of the Magna Carta, this 1930's building has been completely remodelled and refurbished throughout into a stunning family home.

The ground floor is absolutely sumptuous, with an cavernous living/dining area overlooking the rear garden, brand new kitchen with island and appliances including integrated tall fridge, integrated tall freezer, wine fridge, an integrated dishwasher and a Rangemaster induction range cooker. There is a further sitting room and family room as well as a boot room, utility room including washing machine and dryer and downstairs w.c.

On the first floor is a principal suite with dressing room and ensuite shower room, three further bedrooms and two further bathrooms. All fixtures and fittings are brand new. The property has been fitted with double glazed windows and an air source heat pump system.

To the front of the property is a gated, gravelled drive with plenty of space for multiple vehicles as well as an EV charger. To the rear is a patio area, a stream and a large private rear garden as well as lockable storage rooms under the house

Location

Situated in the picturesque hamlet of Friday Street, this property sits in the heart of the Surrey Hills National Landscape.

Nestled on the lower slopes of Leith Hill, this highly sought-after location offers an idyllic country lifestyle right at your doorstep with direct access to an extensive network of bridle paths, footpaths, and woodland tracks right from your front door leading directly up to Leith Hill and the surrounding Wotton Common, offering unparalleled opportunities to explore the Surrey Hills

Local schools include Duke of Kent, Leith Hill School, Hurtwood, Cranmore, St Teresa's, Lanesborough, St Catherine's & Cranleigh School with further renowned independent and state schools in Guildford, Dorking and Cranleigh.
